If the school closes to some or all year groups, we plan to continue teaching and maintaining direct contact with children as much as possible using a variety of methods including online platforms, video calls and telephone contact.

Teachers are planning for this eventuality alongside their weekly plans, so that the focus of learning will be relevant and up to date and the transition to remote learning will be immediate. Each year group has a slightly different plan, tailored to their needs.

Below is a summary of what to expect if we are locked down this term

Which general areas of learning are the most important for the children to continue to focus on?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Phase 4 Phonics (reading and spelling CCVC/CVVC words) • Phase 4 tricky words and keywords • Reading/writing sentences • Maths – Subitising, counting on and back 10, composition, number bonds of 10, & up to 5, adding, taking away • Personal, Emotional, Social Development • Letter formation & number formation
How will you deliver online input?	Recorded Videos through Google Classroom Live sessions through Google Meet Busy Things Home Access White Rose Online Continuation of Learning Video stories – alongside questions for parents to ask
How will you organise learning?	Daily Phonics Provision inc. practical activity Small group 1:1 1:2 reading each week Additional live session each week around CLL. Daily recorded phonics sessions Daily Maths Provision via White Rose inc. practical activity Daily story pre-recorded challenges relating to other areas of learning
What additional support will be provided ?	We will provide assistance for those with limited internet access Children with SEN will be offered a daily 1:1 intervention via telephone or video link – two members of staff and family member with child. If you need to speak to the teacher or require additional support, you can send messages on Google Classroom and these will be answered within 24 hours between 8:30am and 4:30pm Monday-Friday

How will this be provided and shared with teaching assistants and senior leadership team?	Plans on shared drive.

If individual children need to isolate but are well enough to work at home, teachers will send parents the work that the class is doing in school via email or Tapestry. There won't be online teaching unless the majority or the whole class are at home.
